

Eden Lies In East Coast Park

The city's prestigious districts of 9, 10, 11 & 21 may be the talk of town, but district 15 & 16 in the east are quickly winning over locals and expats alike – thanks to their proximity to the Changi International Airport, less than a 10-minute drive away!

Above anything else, it's the 10km or so long beach of East Coast Park that has made it such a resident-magnet. Dawn or dusk, you won't miss die-hard joggers pounding the sand. On weekend evenings, the beach comes alive with people from all walks of life.

Kids having a splash in the sea. Teens whipping up a feast at the BBQ pits. Mum and Dad chilling out on a picnic mat. And if you look hard enough, you could spot a solitary figure listening to the waves, as if in quest of inspiration.

Check out East Coast Jetty and you won't miss fishing enthusiasts patiently waiting for their catch.

And of course, the main attraction - East Coast Lagoon Food Village that provides an alfresco dining experience by the beach.

Its famous local dishes such as beef noodle, chicken porridge, satay and laksa are a "must try" for foreign visitors.

Ambience is the next big thing on the menu. Recently renovated with tropical architecture, beach umbrella tables, timber trellises and broad-walks, the place is transformed by mood lighting into a rest & relax haven under the stars.

Time to go east!
